

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

JAMES OHLSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:22-CV-5864-JCC-DWC

STIPULATED MOTION AND ORDER TO EXTEND PRETRIAL
DEADLINES

STIPULATION

The parties, by and through their attorneys of record, hereby stipulate and request that the Court extend the current pretrial deadlines by 2 months and 7 days. The necessity for this extension arises from Mr. James Ohlson being held at Clallam County Jail, rendering him inaccessible to counsel for many months. As a result, the Defendants have been unable to conduct the deposition of Mr. Ohlson. Both parties have been working diligently to advance the discovery phase, but the unforeseen delays and scheduling conflicts have made it impracticable to meet the current pretrial deadlines. A trial date has not been set for this case, and both parties have good cause for the requested extension.
